

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 19 October 1964

(Unclassified - JSW) There were a number of telephone calls to Senator Leverett Saltonstall and to his office over the weekend and today attempting to arrange an appropriate time for [redacted] of the Agency to brief the Senator. [redacted] was prepared to go to Boston to do this but in view of the President's briefing of congressional leaders during the day the proposed trip was cancelled. Subsequently, [redacted] talked to the Senator late today and the Senator indicated that he did not feel a briefing was necessary. [redacted] assured him that we would be happy to meet with him at any time he desired. The Senator was most appreciative.
